OVERVIEW

Order for a General Election

The 46th Provincial General Election in Newfoundland and Labrador was held on October 9, 2007. This was the first General Election held under the fixed date provisions contained in the House of Assembly (Amendment Act). This Act was amended and received royal assent in December of 2004, requiring voting to occur "... on the second Tuesday in October, 2007 and afterward on the second Tuesday in October in the fourth calendar year following the polling day at the most recently held General Election."

An election begins by Proclamation of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council which directs the Chief Electoral Officer to issue a writ of election in conformity with the instructions of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council as contained in the proclamation. Namely, the writ of election is signed by the Chief Electoral Officer and issued to each Returning Officer in each electoral district. A writ of election includes the day of nomination of candidates, the date of voting and the date in which the writ of election must be returned by each Returning Officer to the Chief Electoral Officer.

On Monday, September 17, 2007, the Honourable Edward M. Roberts, Lieutenant-Governor of Newfoundland and Labrador, dissolved the 45th General Assembly and issued a proclamation directing the Chief Electoral Officer to issue writs to each Returning Officer in all 48 electoral districts and ordering that the General Election be held on Tuesday, October 9, 2007.

Staffing Changes

Since the October 21, 2003, Provincial General Election there have been several changes in appointments of Chief Electoral Officers. Mr. Wayne Green, who was appointed in 2001, retired in April 2006. Mr. Charles (Chuck) Furey was appointed in May 2006 and resigned his position in April 2007. Mr. Paul Reynolds was appointed Chief Electoral Officer in May 2007 and the October 9, 2007 Provincial General Election was conducted under his authority.

Electoral Boundaries Commission

On November 30, 2006, Justice John O'Neill, Chair of the Electoral Boundaries Commission, presented the Commission's final report to the Minister of Justice and Attorney General. The report contained changes to 44 electoral districts on the island but recommended the four Labrador districts remain as is. In addition, the Commission recommended changes to six electoral district names. In January 2007, Government provided Members of the House of Assembly with a copy of the Report and advised that Members accept the recommended changes proposed by the Commission.

The House of Assembly Amendment Act received Royal Assent on March 27, 2007 and came into effect with the dissolution of the 45th General Assembly.

Enumeration

In February 2007, the Legislature approved funds to conduct a province wide provincial enumeration of all eligible electors in the province. This was to be complete in time for the October 9, 2007 General Election.

The door to door visitation began on May 14 and continued through May 25 inclusive. Some 1,550 provincial enumerators were on the streets throughout Newfoundland and Labrador to capture the name, civic and mailing address, date of birth and telephone number of all eligible electors. For enumeration purposes, an eligible elector is a person who will be 18 years of age or older on Election Day, and is a resident in the province, electoral district and polling division being enumerated. A "Doorknob Notice" was left at a residence if the homeowner was not at home when the enumerator visited and contained contact information for the elector to reach the enumerator. If the elector did not call the enumerator a subsequent second and possible third visit was made to the household to try and collect the information.

There were some 20,000 addresses identified by enumerators throughout the course of enumerating as either "vacant" or "no response". Elections Newfoundland and Labrador tried to verify whether these addresses were in fact valid addresses by mailing a letter to the occupant's address accompanied by a request that each qualified elector in the household complete and return the enumeration form in the postage paid envelope provided.

Following the enumeration, a revision period began on Saturday, May 26 and concluded with a final revision on Saturday, June 30 at the office of each District Returning Officer. The purpose of the revision period was to add or revise a name and/or address on the List of Electors by completing an application form and forwarding it to the relevant district Returning Officer. After Saturday, June 30 an elector had to apply directly to Elections Newfoundland and Labrador to be added or revised.

In total, there were 7,655 additions and 4,752 revisions to the list from the conclusion of the enumeration to the time the final list was printed bringing the total number of names on the List of Electors for the province in preparation for the October 9, 2007, Provincial General Election to 367,561.

The province wide enumeration enabled Elections Newfoundland and Labrador to develop its own electoral data base, making it accurate, comprehensive and up to date. This will allow future updates to be more easily transferred and properly incorporated.

Jury Lists

The Jury Act, 1991, directs the High Sheriff of Newfoundland and Labrador to compile and maintain a list of names and addresses of all persons eligible for jury duty. Section 4 of the Act requires that all persons who are Canadian citizens, aged 18 years or older, and resident in the province, serve as a juror unless a person is exempted or disqualified under the Act.

In compiling the Jury Lists, the High Sheriff has the right to access the records of the province's Motor Registration Division, information concerning beneficiaries under the Medical Insurance Act, 1999 data respecting electors compiled by the Office the Chief Electoral Officer, as well as any other source which the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may prescribe.

Upon completion of the 2007 Provincial Enumeration and upon request from the High Sheriff, the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer provided access to elector records for the specific and sole purpose of preparation of Jury Lists.

Legislative Changes

Bill 21, an Act to amend the Elections Act, 1991, was introduced in the Spring 2007 session of the Legislature and received royal assent in June, 2007. A summary of major amendments and changes included the following:

(1) Agreements with Municipalities and School Boards

This amendment now allows the Chief Electoral Officer to enter into an agreement with a municipality or a board with respect to the supply and exchange of information necessary for the revision, correction or compilation of a Permanent List of Electors.

(2) Nomination Fees

The nomination fee has been increased from $100 to $200 and must be made payable to the Chief Electoral Officer to be held in trust. The deposit is 100% refundable if the candidate files with the Chief Electoral Officer an audited statement of income and expenses relating to the election within the time specified by legislation.

(3) Definition of Campaign Period/Filing Financial Statements

“Campaign Period” has been defined as the period beginning with the issue of the writ for an election and ending four months after polling day.

The Chief Financial Officer of every registered political party or candidate shall within four months of polling day, file with the Chief Electoral Officer a financial statement of income and expenses of the party or candidate together with the auditor’s report as required by subsection 302(6).

(4) Supplying Lists of Electors to Candidates and Political Parties

On April 1 of each year, the Chief Electoral Officer will supply to each registered political party under Part III, a copy of the Lists of Electors for all electoral districts in the province;

In addition, when a candidate has been officially nominated by a political party and files a nomination paper with the district Returning Officer he/she will receive a copy of the List of Electors for the district in which he/she is nominated.

Furthermore, not later than five days before polling day, the Chief Electoral Officer will provide to each political party registered under Part III an updated List of Electors for all electoral districts involved in the election and to each candidate, an updated List of Electors for the electoral district where the candidate is nominated.

(5) Special Ballots

Some important and necessary changes with respect to special ballots were implemented for the October 9, 2007 General Election and include:

- An application to vote by special ballot may be made to the Chief Electoral Officer beginning four weeks or fewer before the issue of the Writ.
- The deadline to receive an application at the Chief Electoral Office is 6:00 p.m. on a date to be determined by the Chief Electoral Officer.
- A special ballot kit shall be distributed to an elector by an election official only and returned to the Chief Electoral Officer by the elector or an election official only.
- Where a voter requires the assistance in the completion of his or her special ballot kit, that assistance shall be provided by an election official only.
- The Special Ballot count will begin at 6:00 p.m. on a day to be determined by the Chief Electoral Officer.

(6) Publication of Returning Officers

The Chief Electoral Officer may publish or announce in a newspaper, magazine or other print, audio or electronic media accessible in an electoral district or on a website a list of names and addresses of the Returning Officers for that electoral district.

Other Operational Changes implemented for the General Election:

Special Ballot Voting at District Returning Offices

An additional special ballot office was set up in each electoral district in the province at the office of each Returning Officer to accommodate special ballot voting at the district level. This voting commenced four weeks before the issue of the writ and had the same return deadlines associated with it as CEO Headquarters.

“Designated” Special Ballot Remote Voting at District Office

An additional ten special ballot offices were set up across the province with the determining factor of a 500 km. radius of the district returning office location. These offices were established for voting by “walk in” electors from their resident electoral district only and were established in Bell Island, Burgeo, Ramea, Cartwright, Port Hope Simpson, Churchill Falls, St. Barbe, Hopedale, and Nain. An office was scheduled to be established in Natuashish but was cancelled due to the inability to fill the Special Ballot Officer position, bringing the total number of offices to nine.

Special Ballot “Drop Off” at the Advance Poll

At each of the 102¹ Advance Poll locations throughout the province there was a separate table set up with a ballot box whereby an elector could drop off a completed “Special Ballot Kit” in the district in which the elector ordinarily resided.

¹ The three Advance Polls for the electoral district of Bonavista South are included.

By Election Call in the Electoral District of Baie Verte

On September 10, 2007 a by election was called in the electoral district of Baie Verte to fill a vacancy created when the Progressive Conservative candidate, Mr. Paul Shelley resigned on July 12, 2007.

Current legislation requires that a by election must be called within 60 days of the vacancy and must be held not less than 21 clear days nor more than 30 clear days from the date of proclamation.

The requirement to call the by election was to ensure compliance with the “House of Assembly Act” which stipulates fixed date elections. When the writ of election was issued on September 17, 2007, the by election was no longer in effect.

Public Information and Communications

The Chief Electoral Office provided many opportunities to improve voters’ knowledge across the Province. Elections Newfoundland developed a comprehensive communications strategy to educate voters, the media and the general public about the electoral process, changes to the Elections Act and where to find answers quickly to any voting question.

The communications strategy developed included media kits, advertising in local newspapers, householder brochures, radio ads, news releases, radio and TV interviews and extended office hours at headquarters to include weekends.

For the first time, Elections Newfoundland and Labrador developed an advertising campaign for special ballots which included radio ads and a special ballot brochure which was delivered to every household in the Province.

The advertising campaign also included ads for special ballots and general voting which was placed on local metro area transit buses as well as in bus shelters.

Elections Newfoundland and Labrador also developed a comprehensive website which included all press releases. This website was a positive source for voter information including the location of an electoral district, polling station locations for both advance poll and Election Day and live election night vote counts by electoral district were made available immediately on the website once the results were transmitted to headquarters from Returning Officers.

Newspaper, radio and website ads were placed to inform electors who missed the enumeration that they could still be placed on the voters list by calling Elections Newfoundland and Labrador and that by registering elector information would avoid being “sworn in” on election day.

Three operators for regular polls, two operators for special ballots and two operators for voter registration at headquarters handled telephone and web inquiries for the period one week before the issue of the writ (September 10) to October 12 inclusive.

Candidate Nomination

An individual is eligible to be a candidate as soon as an election is called following the issue of a writ provided the individual is a Canadian Citizen, at least 18 years of age on official Nomination Day, is ordinarily resident in the province the day before Nomination Day; and is not disqualified by the Elections Act or another Act for election to or sitting in the House of Assembly.

In accordance with section 59 of the Elections Act, Nomination Day shall be held on the 10th day before polling day. For the October 9 Provincial General Election the deadline for nominations was 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, September 29.

Upon the close of nominations there were 135 candidates nominated. There was 1 candidate nominated for the Labrador Party; 47 candidates nominated for the Liberal Party; 36 candidates nominated for the New Democratic Party; 48 candidates nominated for the Progressive Conservative Party and 3 non-affiliated candidates. There were 37 female candidates nominated and 98 male candidates nominated.

Death of a Nominated Candidate in the Electoral District of Grand Falls-Windsor-Buchans

The death of Liberal Candidate, Dr. Gerry Tobin, in the electoral district of Grand Falls-Windsor-Buchans occurred after the close of official nominations and resulted in a postponement of the October 9 General Election in that district. Only one other candidate, a Progressive Conservative, had been officially nominated by the close of nominations. This resulted in a new election date which was to be determined in compliance with the Elections Act, 1991.

Advance Polls and “Special Ballot” Drop Off Locations at the Advance Poll

A total of 102 Advance Polls were held throughout the Province on Tuesday, October 2, 2007. The number of advance polls per electoral district ranged from one advance poll in 16 districts to a maximum of five advance polls in three electoral districts. Polling stations were open from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., and 7:30 a.m., to 7:30 p.m., in parts of Labrador on Atlantic Time.

At each advance poll building location there existed for the first time a separate station supervised by one election official (DRO) whose job was to accept a completed special ballot kit from anywhere in the electoral district. By the close of the advance poll there were a total of 7,609 votes cast which included 27 votes cast at the “Drop Off” special ballot locations.

Withdrawal of Candidate from Nomination in the Electoral District of Bonavista South

On October 5, 2007, in the electoral district of Bonavista South, the Liberal Candidate, Mr. Clayton Hobbs, withdrew his candidacy for the October 9 General Election. This left only one candidate remaining, the Progressive Conservative candidate, Mr. Roger Fitzgerald, who was acclaimed and subsequently declared elected on October 5, 2007. As a result, there was no polling day for the electoral district of Bonavista South. Votes cast at the Advance Poll and by special ballot were declared null and void.

Special Ballots

An elector may apply to vote by special ballot if he/she is unable to vote at either a regular or an advance poll. It is often used by electors who are incapacitated, elderly, or by those who travel, work or attend an educational facility outside their regular electoral district.

The special ballot is often referred to as a “mail in” ballot because electors have the option of completing the kit and returning it in a postage paid envelope, although many chose to vote either at the returning office in the electoral district or at the CEO headquarters.

The elector must apply for and receive the special ballot and one cannot be requested on behalf of someone else. This is to ensure that the special ballot is issued to, completed by and returned by the appropriate elector.

An elector may request a special ballot application in person, over the telephone, by fax or the application may be downloaded. The special ballot kit uses a series of envelopes which are designed to protect the secrecy of the voter’s ballot and contains a declaration which must be signed by the elector signifying the elector has not previously voted and will not attempt to vote again.

A legislation change prohibiting political parties and candidates’ access to special ballot kits was indeed positive and resulted in a more relaxed approach by electors, especially seniors in completing and returning both the applications and kits.

The legislation change which allowed special ballot voting to begin four weeks prior to the issue of the writ did not result in a large increase in special ballot applications. When voters were later questioned as to why they didn’t apply earlier, the general response was that they didn’t know you could apply before the writ was issued or they didn’t know who the candidate for their electoral district was before nominations officially closed. Despite what we thought was an extensive advertising campaign, it was not widely known to the general public that either the candidate’s name, political party or both are acceptable when marking a special ballot.

Establishing special ballot offices at the district level for the first time proved very beneficial in most all electoral districts although a review will be launched to examine the existence of these offices in the vicinity of CEO Headquarters as the percentage of voting in those districts ranged from moderate to almost nil in comparison to voting by special ballot in rural electoral districts.

A widespread special ballot campaign was launched to promote voting by special ballot and included householders, radio, newspaper and transit ads as well as interviews by local radio and television stations with the Chief Electoral Officer.

At the close of special ballots there were 8,691 kits issued and 8,446 kits returned to headquarters (which also included those processed at the district level) with an overall completed special ballot kit return rate of 97 per cent. This was a nine per cent increase from the 2003 General Election.

Special ballots at the returning office district level were collected and forwarded to the CEO headquarters in St. John's for counting.

Declaration envelopes were removed beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 6 in the presence of political party scrutineers who were appointed by their respective political parties and sworn to secrecy to keep secret the vote count. Neither the Liberal Party, New Democratic Party, nor the Labrador Party appointed scrutineers to observe the count at CEO headquarters.

The establishment of an additional nine "remote" special ballot locations in the communities of Bell Island, Burgeo, Ramea, Cartwright, Port Hope Simpson, Churchill Falls, St. Barbe, Hopedale, and Nain were received with enthusiasm and proved very beneficial to electors especially in the electoral districts of Conception Bay East and Bell Island and Cartwright-L'Anse au Clair where 181 votes were cast in total at the remote locations.

The counting of special ballots began at 6:00 p.m. on Sunday, October 7.

This special ballot voting process provided a valuable option to electors who may have otherwise been unable to exercise their franchise.

Voting by Special Ballot at Personal Care Homes, Hospitals, and Health Care Centers

The Chief Electoral Officer adopted procedures to enable patients who were hospitalized in the major hospitals and health care centers across Newfoundland and Labrador to exercise their voting rights. The Chief Electoral Officer first sent letters to the Administrators of all 123 hospitals and 33 Personal Care Homes explaining the voting procedure using the special ballot. It was agreed that this process would be used in all major hospitals and a cutoff of over 100 residents was established for personal care homes. In instances where the number was greater than the cutoff point, a regular polling station was established on polling day with bedside voting occurring where necessary. District Returning Officers were responsible for hiring and training two election officials to conduct the vote at each hospital and personal care home. Prior to the writ of election being issued, Returning Officers also consulted with administrators of all personal care homes and major hospitals in the province to determine a suitable time and date to administer the special ballot vote to those patients and residents who were qualified and who wished to vote by special ballot. Two election officials were trained in the procedure of administering the vote in these facilities with the help of hospital volunteers and/or other personal care home employees who sometimes assisted in completing the application forms with the patient/resident.

On Monday, October 1, 2007, Special Ballot Officers conducted the vote at the designated personal care homes and hospitals. At the conclusion of the voting process 2060 electors had voted by special ballot at all personal care homes and 629 electors had voted by special ballot at all hospitals and health care centers.

Electoral Results

The official revised list of electors certified on October 3, 2007 for 47² electoral districts was used for the October 9, 2007 General Election. The revised list contained 367,561 eligible electors. A total of 16,261 electors were sworn in during the election. This included 504 electors sworn in at advance polls; 908 electors sworn in using the special (mail in) ballot method of voting and 14,849 electors sworn in on polling day.

² The electoral district of Grand Falls-Windsor-Buchans was excluded.

Statistics for the October 9, 2007 General Election include³:

- 205,290 votes cast at 1484 regular polls
- 7,553 votes cast at 99 advance polls⁴
- 8,446 votes cast by special (mail in) ballot
- 221,289 total votes cast
- 1,029 rejected ballots
- 220,260 valid votes counted (excludes rejected ballots)
- 60.20 per cent voter turnout

The distribution of popular vote was:

The Labrador Party	0.03%
Liberal Party	21.68%
New Democratic Party	8.49%
Progressive Conservative Party	69.60%
Other	0.20%

The percentage of rejected ballots from the total votes cast is:

Rejected Ballots	0.46%

⁴ The Advance Poll total of 56 votes for the electoral district of Bonavista South was excluded from Advance Poll totals and Total Votes Cast due to the acclamation on October 5, 2007.

Based on preliminary results on election night, Newfoundlanders and Labradorians knew that they had returned the previous government with a very large majority; however, this was subject to verification at the Official Addition of the Vote which was scheduled to take place at each returning office three days later at 9:00 a.m., Friday, October 12. Some results were also subject to change because of possible judicial recounts particularly in the electoral district of The Isles of Notre Dame which resulted in a seven vote difference between the Liberal and Progressive Conservative candidate.

Official Results

The Official Addition of the vote was completed in 46 electoral districts beginning at 9:00 am. on Friday, October 12, The process involves the district Returning Officer, election clerk, the candidates or their scrutineer. If a candidate, a candidate's scrutineer or agent does not attend, then the Returning Officer must secure two witnesses. The Returning Officer opens each ballot box and removes the Official Statement of the Poll and adds this total to the Statement of the Poll for special ballots for each candidate. The Returning Officer then verifies each Statement of the Poll and records the totals in a special report log which is returned to the Chief Electoral Officer in due course.

Upon conclusion of the Official Addition, the candidate with the largest number of votes is declared elected in writing with a copy given to each candidate or his/her representative.

The Official Addition resulted in changes to six electoral districts from the preliminary count reported on election night; namely: Bay of Islands, Fortune Bay-Cape La Hune, Grand Falls-Windsor-Green Bay South, Mount Pearl North, The Straits-White Bay North and Torngat Mountains. These changes did not affect the overall election results.

The Official Addition of the Vote did not include the electoral districts of Bonavista South and Grand Falls-Windsor-Buchans.

Continuation of General Election in the Electoral District of Grand Falls-Windsor-Buchans November 6, 2007

In accordance with section 77 of the Elections Act, 1991, the Chief Electoral Officer fixed the official dates for the continuation of the Grand Falls-Windsor-Buchans election as: Nomination Day: Saturday, October 27; Advance Poll Day: Tuesday, October 30; deadline for Special Ballot Applications: Tuesday, October 30; deadline for receipt of completed Special Ballot Kits: Wednesday, October 31; and, Polling Day: Tuesday, November 6. In accordance with the Elections Act, the Progressive Conservative candidate who was previously nominated remained as the Progressive Conservative candidate and one Liberal and one New Democratic candidate were nominated by the close of official nominations for a total of three candidates.

Special ballots which had been previously cast were declared null and any elector from the district who had voted in this manner had to reapply if he/she wished to vote by special ballot for the November 6 election.

A total of 115 special ballots were issued and all 115 special ballot kits were received back in time for counting at the CEO headquarters on Sunday, November 4. The results from special ballots were combined with the rest of the votes on polling night and were reported at the end of the night.

The Advance Poll held on October 30, resulted in 283 votes cast.

Preliminary election night vote counts for three Advance Polls, 28 Regular Polls and the special (mail in) ballot count were as follows:

DOWNEY , Junior C New Democratic Party	922
SULLIVAN , Susan Progressive Conservative Party	2,767
WOODROW , John J. Liberal Party	163
Total Votes Cast:	3852
Total eligible voters:	7,344
Voter turnout:	52%

The Official Addition of the vote conducted on Friday, November 9 at the Office of the Returning Officer confirmed the progressive conservative candidate, Ms. Susan Sullivan as declared elected.

Judicial Recount

Following the Official Addition of the Vote for the electoral district of the Isles of Notre Dame, a seven vote margin separated the Progressive Conservative Candidate from the Liberal Candidate with a total vote of 2,371 and 2,364 respectively. Pursuant to the Elections Act, section 156(3), the CEO must apply to a judge within seven days for a judicial recount where 10 or less votes separates the candidate with the largest number of votes from the candidate with the second largest number of votes.

The recount was held at the Supreme Court in Grand Falls-Windsor on November 7 and 8, 2007.

At the conclusion of the Judicial Recount, the Progressive Conservative candidate's vote margin increased by five to 2,376 while the Liberal Candidate's vote count remained the same at 2,364 votes.

The Future

Now that the post-election duties are now concluded and while we continue to ensure that we are ready for any kind of electoral event, we have spent a considerable amount of time re-examining our systems and approaches, procedures and policies and guiding principles. We need to evaluate what we did right and what needs improvement while at the same time looking ahead to new practices that will guide us into future electoral events. To do this we must keep the elector in the forefront.

Our plan for 2008-2011 includes a restructuring of our Office and staff to accommodate the ongoing technological and accessibility demands of the individual. Our reorganization will bring us in line with other jurisdictions and will provide the capability to participate more fully with our partners across Canada. Our office must continue to be accountable and transparent in all of our undertakings.

For the 2011 General Election our office is committed to:

- Exploring the potential for an on-line voter registry system;
- Providing Voter Information Cards to electors;
- Providing an expanded website with a section for Youth and Media.

Democratic participation is essential to the future of our Province; therefore we must attempt to curb the decline in voter participation. Elections Newfoundland and Labrador must continue to build and maintain a staff of professional and dedicated people to fulfill our purpose of delivering the electorate's democratic right to vote. We must respond to our shortcomings and challenges. Our future initiatives will help us to overcome any barriers that may lie in our way and we will then be able to make progress on an ongoing, continuous basis.

Trust, integrity and fairness are principal values within our electoral system which demand our recognition and protection.

APPENDIX B

Press Releases from the October 9, 2007 Provincial General Election

Office of the Chief Electoral Officer
September 10, 2007

By-Election in Electoral District of Baie Verte Announced

Following today's proclamation directing a writ of by-election for the Electoral District of Baie Verte, Mr. Paul Reynolds, Chief Electoral Officer of Newfoundland and Labrador, has directed Rowena Morey, Returning Officer, to conduct the election of a member of the House of Assembly.

The House of Assembly Act requires by-elections to be announced within 60 days and conducted within 90 days of a vacancy. The vacancy in the District of Baie Verte was created by the resignation of MHA Paul Shelley on July 12, 2007.

With the fixed election date of October 9, 2007, the writ for the provincial election must be issued by September 17, 2007. Once that writ is issued, the by-election will no longer be in effect. Additionally, the new electoral boundaries will come into effect at that time, including the new electoral district of Baie Verte-Springdale.

Special Ballot Voting

With the 2007 provincial election approaching, the people of Newfoundland and Labrador should be reminded that Special Ballot Voting has begun in all 48 electoral district returning offices. These offices opened August 20, 2007 and ten additional Special Ballot Office locations have been designated.

Applications for Special Ballot Voting are available from The Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, 39 Hallett Crescent, St. John's, NL, A1B 4C4; the returning officers in each of the 48 electoral districts; the website of the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer; or from appointed election officials at designated special ballot locations throughout the Province. The deadline for these applications is 6 p.m., Tuesday, October 2, 2007.

People who are qualified to vote and who have reason to believe that they may have difficulty voting at an advance poll or at the poll on polling day may apply for Special Ballot Voting.

For more information about Special Ballot locations, qualifications, applications, deadlines, or for any other inquiries, please call 1-877-729-5361, or visit www.gov.nl.ca/elections.

Writs Issued for the October 9, 2007 Provincial General Election

Newfoundland and Labrador's Chief Electoral Officer, Mr. Paul Reynolds, confirmed today that writs have been issued to all 48 returning officers for the October 9, 2007 Provincial General Election.

The staff at Elections Newfoundland and Labrador has been working very diligently to ensure that this election process runs smoothly. With recent events like the enumeration, boundary changes, and changes to special ballot voting, it has been a busy time at the Chief Electoral Office.

Throughout the election period, the Chief Electoral Office will be open Monday to Friday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m., and Sunday from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m. This applies for both regular office hours and for special ballot voting.

There are 1546 polling divisions, 105 Advance Polls, 48 Special Ballot District Offices and 10 designated special ballot office locations.

If you have any questions or for more information please call 1-877-729-5361, or visit www.gov.nl.ca/elections.

Student Voting

The Office of the Chief Electoral Officer is encouraging students to exercise their right to vote in the upcoming Provincial General Election on October 9, 2007.

In order to qualify to vote, you must be:

- A Canadian Citizen;
- At least 18 years of age on polling day;
- Ordinarily resident in the Province on October 8, 2007;
- Ordinarily resident in the district and polling division.

To be “ordinarily resident”, you may consider where you would normally reside. There are three examples that may be helpful to consider:

- If you are a student who is attending an educational institution and is currently living at home, then your home is your place of “ordinary residence”. You should be included on the voter’s list in the polling division where your home is located and vote there.
- If you are a student who is living away from home to attend school, but you are planning to return to your home town upon completion of your education, then your family home is your place of “ordinary residence”. You should be included on the voter’s list in the polling division where your home is located and vote there.
- If you are a student who is living away from the family home and are not returning to the family home upon completion of your education, then you may consider your current residence your “ordinary residence”. You should be included on the voter’s list in the polling division where you are currently residing and vote in that polling division.

Additionally, students have the option of voting in the Advance Poll on October 2, 2007 or by Special Ballot, which is taking place until October 2, 2007. For more information on student voting, Advance Poll, and Special Ballot, or for other inquiries, please feel free to visit the Elections NL website: www.gov.nl.ca/elections, or call (toll free) 1-877-729-7987.

Remember, choose to vote...vote to choose!

Notice of Special Ballot Deadline

The Office of the Chief Electoral Officer would like to notify the residents of Newfoundland and Labrador that time is quickly running out to apply to vote by Special Ballot.

There is still time to apply for a Special Ballot. To get an application visit the Elections NL website (www.gov.nl.ca/elections), contact the Chief Electoral Office at 1-877-729-7987, contact your district Returning Office, or apply in person at a designated district office location. These applications must be received by 6 p.m. on October 2, 2007.

Please be advised that the designated Special Ballot Office locations are open on Wednesdays and Saturdays only, so if electors would like to apply for a Special Ballot and vote in person at these offices, they should do so by Saturday, September 29, 2007 at 5 p.m. Electors may contact these offices for further information.

Special Ballots may be mailed to the Chief Electoral Office, 39 Hallett Crescent, St. John's, A1B 4C4. Additionally, electors may drop off completed ballots at the district Advance Poll where there will be Special Ballot Drop-Off boxes available.

The deadline for receipt of completed Special Ballots at both the district returning office and at the Chief Electoral Office headquarters is 4 p.m. on October 3, 2007.

Clarification Notice: Student Voting

The Office of the Chief Electoral Officer would like to clarify some issues regarding Student Voting in the upcoming Provincial General Election.

Ultimately, it is up to students in the province to decide where they are “ordinarily resident”. Students should consider the following in determining where they consider themselves to be “ordinarily resident”.

According to the Elections Act, 1991, ordinary residence is “that place in which [an elector] has his or her principal or only residence, home, lodging or habitation”. Furthermore, “a person who has left his or her place of residence in the province to pursue a course of study at an educational institution either outside or within the province is considered to be ordinarily resident in the place where he or she was residing immediately before leaving to pursue the course of study, and he or she is considered to continue to have that ordinary residence until he or she completes or abandons the course of study”.

If a student is living away from home to attend an educational institution and does not intend to return to the community from which they came to establish their permanent residence, then they may vote in the district where they are currently living. They will have to ensure that they are registered in that area, and will have to produce identification and swear an oath at the polling station.

It should be noted that students cannot simply vote where ever he or she chooses. This is not a matter of students “not being home on polling day”. They must decide for themselves where they consider their home base, and should therefore vote in that district.

Employee Voting Time

In law, any elector who is scheduled to work on Polling Day has the right to have four consecutive hours for the purpose of casting his or her vote during polling hours. Polls will be open on October 9, 2007 from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. (7:30 a.m. until 7:30 p.m. Labrador time).

According to section 210 of the Elections Act, 1991, an employer is obligated to provide to employees four consecutive hours off from work for the purpose of voting while the polls are open. Employees do not have the right to set which four hours they would prefer to take; as long as four consecutive hours are provided, the employer's obligation is satisfied. This could simply mean that employees are relieved from work early to make it to the polls within four hours of them closing. Employers are not permitted to deduct an employee's pay if time during the regular workday is required to provide time off for voting.

It should be noted that if the regular work hours do not allow for four consecutive hours to be taken when the employee is on duty, the employer must nonetheless allow the extra time necessary within the polling period to grant time for the elector to vote.

Withdrawal of Candidate in Bonavista South

In accordance with section 76 of the Elections Act, 1991, the withdrawal of Liberal candidate, Clayton Hobbs, has resulted in the Returning Officer in that district declaring the remaining candidate, Progressive Conservative Roger Fitzgerald, as the elected representative in Bonavista South. Because the Progressive Conservative candidate has been declared elected, there will be no polling day for Bonavista South on Tuesday, October 9, 2007.

Election Night – Media Notice

The media should be advised that when the polls close at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, October 9, 2007, the results of the Provincial General Election may be obtained from the Chief Electoral Office. In total, there are 1628 polls which include 1483 Regular Polls, 99 Advance Polls, and 46 Special Ballot Polls. It should be noted that the Bonavista South and Grand Falls-Windsor-Buchans districts are excluded from this count.

The first results of the night are immediately reported by the Returning Officers and the results thereafter are reported in groups of five polls. This information will be made available to the media as it is received. Please make arrangements for access to a direct phone line by calling 729-0712.

Additionally, election results will be available live on the Elections Newfoundland and Labrador website (www.gov.nl.ca/elections). A room will also be provided at the Chief Electoral Office for media representatives who wish to be present as the results are received. Please confirm your attendance by 2 p.m., Tuesday, October 9, 2007, by telephoning Adrienne at 729-2534.

Special Mail-In Ballot Results

The Special Mail-In Ballots were counted at the Chief Electoral Office this past weekend in preparation for the Provincial General Election on Tuesday, October 9, 2007.

Mr. Paul Reynolds, Chief Electoral Officer, believes that the Special Ballot process was a success for this election. In 2003, the Office issued 12,210 Special Ballot kits and received 10,838 of those back. This time around, 8,930 kits were issued and the Chief Electoral Office received 8,697 back. That is a success rate of 97 per cent, as compared with 89 per cent in 2003.

The Special Ballot results will be combined with the rest of the votes on Polling Night and will be reported at the end of the night.

Special Ballot Voting in the Grand Falls-Windsor-Buchans General Election

The general election in the electoral district of Grand Falls-Windsor-Buchans will take place on November 6, 2007. According to the Elections Act, 1991, “where a candidate dies after the close of nominations and before the closing of polls on polling day, the returning officer shall, with the approval of the Chief Electoral Officer, cancel notice of the poll and fix another day for the nomination of candidates”. This means that a whole new electoral process must take place. The passing of Dr. Gerry Tobin, the Liberal candidate, means that the Liberals and the other political parties are given the option to nominate new candidates. Therefore, the Special Ballots that were received for the October 9, 2007 Provincial General Election in that district will not be counted.

People who wish to cast their vote by Special Ballot must apply again. To apply for a Special Ballot, you may contact the Grand Falls-Windsor-Buchans Returning Officer, Georgina Barnes, at 489-0223 or 489-0796. You may also contact the Chief Electoral Office toll free at 1-877-729-7987. Additionally, Special Ballot applications may be downloaded from the Elections Newfoundland and Labrador website: www.gov.nl.ca/elections.

Official Addition of Votes for October 9, 2007 General Election

Under the authority of Section 79 of the Elections Act, 1991, the returning officers in the province carried out an official addition of the votes on Friday, October 12, 2007.

The official addition has resulted in changes to six electoral districts from the preliminary count reported on election night, namely: Bay of Islands, Fortune Bay-Cape La Hune, Grand Falls-Windsor-Green Bay South, Mount Pearl North, The Straits-White Bay North, and Torngat Mountains. These changes do not affect the overall election results.

These results do not include the electoral district of Grand Falls-Windsor-Buchans, where the General Election will take place on November 6, 2007.

Date Set for the Judicial Recount in The Isles of Notre Dame

Newfoundland and Labrador's Chief Electoral Officer, Mr. Paul Reynolds, confirmed today that the date has been set for the judicial recount in The Isles of Notre Dame electoral district.

The recount will begin on Wednesday, November 7, 2007 at 9:30 a.m. at the Supreme Court in Grand Falls-Windsor.

According to the Elections Act, 1991, an election that results in a difference of ten votes or less must have a judicial recount. The election in The Isles of Notre Dame resulted in a difference of only seven votes between Derrick Dalley of the Progressive Conservative Party and Gerry Reid of the Liberal Party. According to the official count, Derrick Dalley had 2371 votes and Gerry Reid had 2364 votes.

If you have any questions or for more information please call 1-877-729-5361, or visit www.gov.nl.ca/elections.
